I am a passionate content and communication strategist with over a decade of experience transforming complex ideas into clear, actionable messages across diverse sectors like transit, academia, political campaigns, and global brands. I thrive on creating systems, campaigns, and content that bridge the gap between organizations and their audiences. My dedication to data analysis empowers me to evaluate and refine strategies that drive success.

Experience

Director of Content Design & Strategic Communication

Nov 2023 — Present

Massachusetts Bay Transit Authority (MBTA)

Adobe Creative Suite · Tableau · Google Analytics · Canva · Drupal · Asana

- Produced engaging content for federal officials, transit advocates, and riders; managed multichannel communication strategies for the Office of Quality, Compliance & Oversight (QCO) aimed at translating complex policy and transit jargon into actionable change.
- Developed and managed the Workforce Segmentation Database, integrating data from four departments into a comprehensive profile of over 8,171 employees across 573 job codes. This consolidation facilitates quick impact assessments across more than five major areas of change initiatives.
- Created a brand style guide and reusable content templates aligned with QCO and MBTA strategies. I also implemented AI-driven workflows using tools like Claude, Canva AI, Adobe Firefly, and Runway to speed up asset development while ensuring brand consistency.
- Worked with subject matter experts to create clear policy content for print, TSTOP, TCOMMS, video, and MBTA.com.
- Organized and led workshops that focused on systems and design thinking across different departments to create strategic communication plans for the workplace.
- Developed, created, and implemented change management templates along with an OCM Policy for the MBTA, which was presented to the FTA as a final regulatory deliverable.
- Created board materials, including executive strategy development, storytelling, and speech writing for senior leadership.

Global Digital Content & UX Strategist

Oct 2022 — Nov 2023

Abdul Latif Jameel Poverty Action Lab (J-PAL) · MIT

HTML · Drupal · Figma · Salesforce · Pardot · Adobe Premiere · Trello

- Led a global marketing campaign that involved creating microsites, gathering influencer testimonials, and conducting video interviews with high-profile individuals.
- Redesigned the research resources hub with enhanced search and taxonomy within a 3-month deadline, leading to a 30% increase in event and newsletter conversions through user testing and heat mapping.
- Produced J-PAL@20 global events in Cambridge, Paris, and Cairo featuring heads of state, Nobel laureates, and international economic leaders
- Implemented Drupal Layout Builder, enabling 7 global offices to publish pages without code or IT tickets.
- Created over 30 interview videos to boost global brand recognition. Developed video libraries on YouTube and TikTok using topic-based taxonomy and analytics, while managing paid social strategies on Facebook, Instagram, and Google Search.

UX Strategist & Digital Communications Manager

Feb 2021 — Oct 2022

Harvard University

Sketch · Google Analytics · Trello · Ahrefs · Google AdWords

- Created web, email, and social content across multiple Harvard Online brands via copy, graphics, and video. Managed paid social campaigns on Facebook, Instagram, Google Search, and YouTube to strengthen the Harvard Online brand and organized the YouTube channel by topic and analytics.
- Led end-to-end website builds from wireframe through launch, managing backend development, SEO, and vendors.
- Created briefs and led focus groups for 20+ templates and microsites, improving stakeholder visibility.
- Developed and launched HarvardOnline.Harvard.edu; established email program generating $300K+ in year one.
- Facilitated cross-departmental workshops with C-Suite to develop strategic brand plans and messaging.
